A. Textbook Adoption

Textbooks shall be selected and adopted from materials submitted by the various publishers through the following procedure:

1. For an adoption in a subject area, a selection committee composed of teachers shall be appointed by the Superintendent. This committee shall be responsible for reviewing the textbooks submitted by the publishers and making recommendations for local adoption. Division of Instruction staff members shall serve as consultants to the committee.

Committee members may request consultation with their own faculty members, members of other faculties, supervisors, publishers’ representatives, and others; but the names of committee members shall not be furnished to publishers. All contacts with publishers’ representatives shall be with the committee as a whole and only at the request of the committee.
