IB PREPARATORY 2020-2021 Admissions Application

Program Description

The International Baccalaureate Programme is open to highly motivated, academically focused students who meet selective admissions criteria. The IB Preparatory Program (IB Prep) is a rigorous, comprehensive, pre-university course of study that incorporates global perspectives. The student who satisfies its demands demonstrates a strong commitment to learning, both in terms of the mastery of subject content and in the development of the skills and discipline necessary for success in a competitive world. The six-subject core program offers an accelerated and advanced curriculum designed to ensure that the math/science-oriented student is challenged to develop appreciation for language and cultures, and that the humanities-oriented student becomes knowledgeable about mathematics and science. Overall balance is maintained, and students can pursue areas of personal interest and meet special requirements for university entrance. Sixth subject elective options currently include psychology, visual arts, and music. In addition, classroom study is extended by critical reflection on Theories of Knowledge (T.O.K.), by participation in creativity, action, and service (CAS) to the community, and by completion of an independent research project and essay (E.E.). Holders of IB diploma may qualify for admission to highly selective universities throughout the world.

IB is not a gifted program. Students interested in pursuing the IB Preparatory Program should take the most Advanced/Accelerated courses for which the student qualifies in preparation for the 11th and 12th grade IB DP courses. DCSD recommends that prospective IB DP students to take the following sequence of courses:

Recommended Sequence of Courses for Prospective IB Students in 7th – 10th Grades

IB PREPARATORY 2020-2021 Admissions Application

A Potential IB Preparatory Candidate

WILL USUALLY....

- Have a strong work ethic
- Demonstrate extra effort to ensure learning (takes notes spontaneously, researches independently, and asks high-level questions)
- Be highly motivated (either intrinsically or extrinsically)
- Have future goals that include college or graduate work
- Respond bravely to the most challenging assignments
- Have an involved and motivated parent or guardian

MIGHT BE....

- One of the top-scoring students (this is often, but not always true)
- High-achieving, but systemically under-challenged
- Quiet or shy
- Dealing with learning challenges (SLD, ADD, ADHD, etc.)

WILL USUALLY NOT....

- Say “pass” when asked what he/she wants out of high school
- Resist higher-order thinking challenges
- Create failure conditions in classes
- Create behavior disturbances that interfere with quality learning
- Care solely about grades rather than about the intrinsic rewards of learning and wondering about the world.

Criteria for IB Preparatory Student’s Success

1. Love of Learning - An IB student will have a strict academic program to follow. Study, reading, and preparation time must be carefully managed. The student will need to realize that this rigorous program is best suited for those who truly enjoy the exploration of learning and pursuit of excellence.
2. Grades – GPA of 3.0 in core subjects is required while enrolled in the program.
3. Time Management - IB students need to have excellent time-management skills. Adjustments to a busy schedule will have to be made to accommodate increased demands on time for a heavy academic load.
4. Study Skills - Diploma candidates need to spend an average of three to four hours of study per evening. A strong reading ability is essential. It is also recommended that IB students limit outside employment.
5. Excellent Attendance - Daily attendance is an important part of IB. Courses move quickly and substantial information is covered daily.
6. Community involvement - The CAS component of IB requires involvement in humanitarian endeavors in the school and in the local and international communities.
7. Ability to Articulate - Throughout the IB Preparatory Program, demonstration of thought, expression, and clarity are constantly assessed and challenged. Strong speaking and presentation skills are needed.
8. Previous Course Work - Participation in 7th-8th classes accelerated core courses is preferred. See 7th – 10th Grade level sequence of courses.

IB PREPARATORY 2020-2021 Admissions Application

9. Involvement - IB students will be expected to be prepared and participate in class discussions. They will need to present ideas, see relationships, draw conclusions, discuss possible outcomes, listen carefully, and respect other viewpoints.
10. International Interest - IB students are expected to be global in interest and focus. They should demonstrate interest in other countries, cultures, global beliefs, and customs.
